

I support XM Satellite radio and all of its stations. I rely on the Washington D.C. station for current traffic and weather. I work in the D.C. area and take I-395 every day. These stations are very important to me in my every day commute.